The Historical Background of Mother Goose

Mother Goose is a legendary figure in children's literature, often depicted as an elderly woman who recites or recited nursery rhymes to children. The term "Mother Goose" first appeared in literature during the 17th century, but the collection of rhymes attributed to her likely predates this. The earliest published compilations, such as "Songs for the Nursery" by Robert Louis Stevenson or "Mother Goose's Melodies", date back to the 18th century. These collections contain familiar titles like "Humpty Dumpty," "Jack and Jill," and "Baa Baa Black Sheep."
