Sample Federal Tax Exam Questions and Explanations

To illustrate how questions and explanations work, here are examples with detailed insights.

Example 1: Income Recognition

Question:

John received a $5,000 bonus from his employer in December 2023, but he will not receive the payment until January 2024. When should John recognize this income?

Options:

- a) December 2023
- b) January 2024
- c) When the check clears
- d) When he files his tax return

Correct Answer: a) December 2023

Explanation:

Under the cash basis method, which most individual taxpayers use, income is recognized in the year it is received. However, bonuses are generally considered income in the year earned unless there is a specific agreement stating otherwise. Since John received the bonus in December 2023, he must include it in his 2023 income, even if the actual payment is made in January 2024. IRS Publication 525 provides guidance on income recognition rules.

Example 2: Deduction Eligibility

Question:

Maria paid $2,000 in mortgage interest on her primary residence in 2023. She also paid $1,000 in interest on a home equity loan used to buy a vacation property. Which of the following statements is true?

Options:

- a) Both interest payments are deductible on her 2023 tax return.

- b) Only the mortgage interest on her primary residence is deductible.
- c) Only the interest on the home equity loan is deductible.
- d) Neither are deductible because the loan was used for personal purposes.

Correct Answer: b) Only the mortgage interest on her primary residence is deductible.

Explanation:

Mortgage interest on a primary residence is deductible if it meets IRS requirements, such as being secured by the residence and within loan limits. Interest on a home equity loan is deductible only if the proceeds are used to buy, build, or substantially improve the property that secures the loan. Since Maria used the home equity loan for a vacation property, the interest is not deductible as mortgage interest on her primary residence. IRS Publication 936 provides detailed rules on deductible mortgage interest.
