Origins of Greta Thunberg's Climate Activism

Background and Early Life

Greta Thunberg was born on January 3, 2003, in Stockholm, Sweden. Growing up in a family deeply engaged with environmental issues?her mother, Malena Ernman, is an opera singer and environmental activist, and her father, Svante Thunberg, is an actor and author?Greta was introduced early to concerns about climate change. Triggering the Strike: A Personal Catalyst

In 2018, Greta was 15 years old when she first took a decisive step that would define her activism: she decided to skip school every Friday to protest outside the Swedish parliament building in Stockholm. Her goal was to pressure the Swedish government to take more aggressive action against climate change. These weekly protests, dubbed "Fridays for Future," quickly gained traction among her peers and drew media attention.

The initial motivation stemmed from her frustration with the lack of sufficient governmental action and her personal struggle with depression, which she described as a catalyst to channel her feelings into activism. Greta?s clear message was simple yet powerful: "School strike for climate."
